1. Secondary Offering by Over-Allotment etc.

- (1) A secondary offering by over-allotment may be effected by Nikko Cordial Securities Inc., the lead manager of the public offering, after considering demand and other conditions, of up to a limit of 2,000 units borrowed from Mitsui Fudosan, a unitholder of the Investment Corporation (“secondary offering by over-allotment”). The number of units to be offered through the secondary offering by over-allotment is the upper limit and may be reduced, or the offering through over-allotment itself may be suspended, depending on demand and other conditions.

In order to cause Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. to acquire FRI units necessary to repay the borrowed units by Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. in connection with the secondary offering by over-allotment, FRI resolved, at the Board of Directors meeting held today, that 2,000 new units of FRI be issued and allocated to Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. (“third-party allotment”) with delivery and settlement date on the third business day after the 30th day reckoned from the next day of the end of the offering period of primary offering and secondary offering by over-allotment.

In addition, Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. may, within the period commencing on the day immediately following the end of the offering period for the public offering and the secondary offering by over-allotment and ending on three business days before the delivery and settlement date of the third-party allotment (“syndicate cover transaction period”), purchase up to the maximum number of FRI units sold in the secondary offering by over-allotment on the Tokyo Stock Exchange (“syndicate cover transaction”) with the aim of repaying the borrowed units. All FRI units procured by Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. through syndicate cover transaction will be allocated to repay the borrowed units. During the syndicate cover transaction period, Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. may, at its discretion, choose not to enter into any syndicate cover transaction, or to terminate such transaction prior to reaching the maximum number of units to be issued in the secondary offering by over-allotment.

Moreover, Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. may enact stabilization transactions in relation to the public offering and secondary offering by over-allotment, and allocate all or part of the FRI units purchased through stabilization transactions in order to repay the borrowed units.

Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. plans to underwrite the allotment under this issuance of new units by a third-party allotment of number of FRI units obtained by deducting the number of units purchased through stabilizing transaction and syndicate cover transaction that are to be used to return the borrowed units, from the number of units to be offered in the over-allotment. For this reason, the units to be issued by third-party allotment may not be subscribed in whole or in part, and consequently, the subscription right will be forfeited and the final number of units with respect to the third-party allotment may be reduced to the same extent, or the issue itself may be suspended.

Whether the secondary offering by over-allotment is exercised and the number of units to be subscribed when the secondary offering by over-allotment is exercised will be determined on the Date for Determination of Issue Price etc. In case the secondary offering by over-allotment is not exercised, Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. will not borrow FRI units from Mitsui Fudosan. Consequently, in case the secondary offering by over-allotment is not exercised, Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. will not respond or apply for the third-party allotment and the subscription right will be forfeited and the issuance of new units by third-party allotment will not take place at all. Similarly, the syndicate cover transaction on the Tokyo Stock Exchange will not be exercised.

- (2) The transaction stated in Item 1 above shall be made by Nikko Cordial Securities Inc. in consultation with Daiwa Securities Capital Markets Co. Ltd. and Nomura Securities Co., Ltd.
